TAX CONFERENCE

Students of National Fame Will Discuss Taxation at Columbus.

In response to a call in August by Governor Harris of Ohio, there will be held in Columbus, Ohio, November 25, a national conference of the National Tax Association. Delegates have been appointed to this meeting by the governors of all the states, and it will, in addition, be attended by many tax experts from all over the country. The discussion will take the form of a series of lectures, which will be held in Columbus will result in disseminating a great deal of information on the subject of methods of taxation and of means to stimulate and further the progress in this reform. Governor Buchanan has appointed three gentlemen to represent the state of Kentucky. It is very much to be hoped that they will attend, as Kentucky has as great an interest in any other state in this question, and it is very much to be hoped that they will make the conference an exhaustive discussion of the subject

"A Reliable Brand is the Buyer's Guide"

Few men would buy a plow for a mowing machine without a brand or a name to guide them. The same good judgment should be used in buying a Suit or Overcoat. Get one with a name the makers and sellers will stand behind. In short, look for "Kenton," the label that appears on nothing but the best clothing—clothing made from the best materials and carefully hand-tailored by expert craftsmen. Kenton clothing fits and keeps its shape and freshness through the longest service. We've tried about all the good kinds and find Kenton the best of them all.

Swapping Party. Something New and Novel.

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church, has extended its social and cordial invitation to the people of this city, old and young, to attend a swapping party, on Friday evening November 15th, in the parlors of the Gideon Hotel, the home being from seven to ten. An admission of ten cents will be charged at the door, which sum will entitle one to the refreshments, amusements and so on. Each couple is requested to bring an article of wearing apparel, which will be traded to some other guest during the evening.

Merchant to Collect Monthly.

Old ways of doing business are being abandoned, and new ways are being adopted. The Business Men's Association of this city has been considering the advisability, for some time, of adopting the motto, "short credit makes long friends," and at their meeting last Tuesday night determined to do so. The fact that a number of people who got into the "habit" in the "long ago" of considering January 1st as the date for settling their bills, have made matters bad for the grocer, the apothecary, the merchant who believes in making profits and a frequent turnover of his capital.
